

Please join the Oakland Plan project team for a series of workshops focused on the future of two important sites. Your input will inform proposals for these sites in the Oakland Plan.

The workshops will focus on two important sites in Oakland and incorporate input from last fall's online open house and subsequent monthly meetings of the four Action Teams (Community, Development, Mobility, and Infrastructure). Attendees will be part of envisioning how redevelopment might address needs for housing, jobs, community services, people-friendly streets, and park space in Oakland. Optional outdoor socially distant tours will also take place with all attendees required to wear masks.
